

How to place coloured marker threads

Placing marker threads at the end of rows will help you to sew together your finished knitted pieces.

- Thread a short piece of yarn of a different colour through the first and last stitches on the needle and knot loosely in place.
- If you need more than 1 set of marker threads it is a good idea to use different coloured scraps of yarn so that you can match them up easily. These can be cut off when you have finished.

SIRDAR